

FY Maths NSW

The Mathematics Education Support Hub (MESH) and the School of Computing, Engineering and Mathematics (SCEM) at UWS invite you to a one day seminar on first year tertiary maths for those involved in teaching in NSW. This seminar builds on the activities of the FYiMaths network by providing a local forum for networking.

- Date: 3rd July 2015
- Venue: University of Western Sydney, Parramatta South campus, room EB.G.05.
- Time: 10 am until 5 pm (arrive 9:30 for tea, coffee and networking).
- Cost: Free (tea, coffee and a light lunch provided).

Join us for dinner after at a local restaurant (at your own expense).

Guest Speakers:

John Mack, Honorary Associate Professor, University of Sydney John Rice, Honorary Professor, University of Sydney and Executive Director, Australian Council of Deans of Science
